The local Cadiz neighborhood was inhabited by millionaires and middle-class people at the end of the 19th century. Today, it represents a unique historical area, where it is possible to find an interesting area of modern buildings and parks. Today, it is a place for business, restaurants, businesses, cafes, and parks.

Barrio Belavista

This neighborhood was home to the rich and famous in the 19th century. It is home to some of the most beautiful colonial buildings in the city.

Barrio Brasil / Yungay

This neighborhood was home to the rich and famous in the 19th century. It is home to some of the most beautiful colonial buildings in the city.

Barrio Belas Artes / Lastarria

This neighborhood was home to the rich and famous in the 19th century. It is home to some of the most beautiful colonial buildings in the city.

Bosque Norte

This neighborhood was home to the rich and famous in the 19th century. It is home to some of the most beautiful colonial buildings in the city.

Vitacura

This neighborhood was home to the rich and famous in the 19th century. It is home to some of the most beautiful colonial buildings in the city.